BEST COPY

AVAILABLE

By RICK TUTTLE

spies is unfounded.

But it is true the university's expanding criminology and corrections program has start. ed an elite course in "international erime control and country - espion-tems: INTERPOL, the interna- the commission tional police organizations, and TALLAHASSEE — The ru-mor that Florida State Uni-versity is running a school for cret police."

Dr. Vernon Fox, who heads network is siner finding students interested in fer said. "But the course. More than 200 cause of betts. The ching or tried to sign up but only 18 methods. They so about it do not the top students were adadifferent way, 500 must conmitted to the seminar-style sider that everyone reaving the escaping from his native Hungary to England. He is a lawsaid In Stephen Schafer in the University of Budapest, ploma -- he isn't a greenhorn. good English that carries a While in Hungary he served tinge of his Hungarian back- as a representative to the

the United Nat How does the Roylet tem rank with

"I would my the Soy Soviet Union is a spy. Otherwise he would not get a passport. Espidnage has always DR. SCHAFER joined the been a central problem with FSU faculty last August after the Russians, it has always coisted."

When a spy, does get his yer and taught criminology at passport - equivalent to a di-

"THE SOVIET spy courses In levoted to two police systinal and Pententiaire before ours," Dr. Schaffer said. "I Iven't taken one but I know sething about them. A stu-it them to to its years in the first he is country. He and leases the country. He

Dr. Schafer said he had no whether Rudolph Abel was actually Russia's No. 1 spy.

I don't know that much about the Abel case," he said.

He did have an opinion, however, on Francis Gary Powers, the U.S. U2 pilot who served two years in a Soviet prison for apying.

Nikita Khrushchev quickly called Powers a spy. And although he was hired by --- and still works for -- the Central Intelligence Angency, many citizens still wonder how Powers should be classed. Was he a spy as Khrushchev claims or was he on a military reconnaissance mission that could not be classed spying.

"I would have to say Powers was a spy," Dr. Schafer. said, "Of course my opinion is based only on newspaper accounts. But since the U.S. is not at open war with the Sovlet Union, I would call it spy- ; ing."

He added:

"But the Soviet attitude -indighant -- was wholly unfounded."

He wild the Russian bitterness was just for propaganda purpoles It is spying all it can in the U.S. right now.

DR. WHAPER said the primary intrnational police problem today is narcotics traffic. The impress and export of prostitutes if on the decline.

The sin of the course is to present the entire picture of the interpational police operation and the mechanics of the Soviet in the stem.
South the set taught how bombs, but +10 at 14 to defend Mercio the future n faced a Soviet espion-

one of the s un a collège

Approved For Release 2000/08/03 : CIA-RDP75-00001R06